“ I was a former neighbor to the Kosel family when all the kids were still at home on Bidwell Ave. Ken was my age, Mike older, and Mary Ann younger than I. We all attended St. Matthew's School and Church. Over the years since I left the neighborhood, I would run into one or other of the Kosel Family on occasion. The memories of the old neighborhood and wonderful families that were raised in our area always comes flooding back. I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the Kosel Family on the passing of Mary Ann. May she RIP...Maryann Emerson Becker

“ Dear Family of Mary Ann,

I was a schoolmate of Mary Ann's at St. Matthew's from the 1st through 6th grade in the 1950s, and also was a neighbor who lived near Baker Playground.

I remember her as nice, friendly and smart.

A special memory that I have is: Mary Ann inviting me to a St. Matthew's reunion a few year ago, even though I did not graduate from there. I went to it and had a great time sharing memories with classmates.

I am sorry for your loss, rest in peace.

Sincerely,

Mark Votel
